

You Changed, It Wasn't Me

When you look, do you see
A change in me?

A change my friend, how could it all end
I have left, and gone, and now you're on your own
But if you look, you will see
Who changed wasn't me

Now as time goes by, I think but not long
For a girl, I knew.

That someone was you
You have left, and gone, and now I'm on my own
But when I look, I can see
Who changed wasn't me
You changed , it wasn't me

*I was the one, who tried to make things better
But over time, we just did not come together*

Take a look, and you'll see
The changes I see

A change my friend, that signaled the end
To the love, we shared, a love beyond compare
But now our love, has gone
And we are on our own

*I was the one, who tried to make things better
But over time, we just did not come together*

When you look, do you see
A change in me?

A change my friend, how could it all end
I have left, and gone, and now you're on your own
But if you look, you will see
Who changed wasn't me
You changed , it wasn't me
You changed , it wasn't me

Composition By: FRANK ANTONICELLI

©2019 Be Still Publishing LLC

For non-commercial use only