

A Caretaker's Creed

Many have come before you
and many will proceed.
But for today you are
the caretaker of a special deed.

This mortar and brick structure
will once again become a home.
As you breathe new life into it
and make it your own.

As you fill the house with love
it too will love you.
And become a point of refuge
in everything you do.

A gathering place
for all to come.
Filled with joy, laughter
happiness and fun.
