

Lilly

Brown eyes, brown hair

Long legs, I try not to stare

Who is that girl, that just caught my eye

And where has she been, all of my life

Stunning looks, a southern charm

This little angel, has got it all goin' on

An inviting smile, lights up her face

When she enters a room, she stops time and space

Lilly, you leave me speechless

Oh Lilly, what can I do

Cuz, Lilly I think I'm falling

Falling in love with you

What is her sign, is she for real

If given a chance, my heart she will steal

Where is she from, where did she go

I've got to tell her, I want her to know

Lilly, you leave me speechless

Oh Lilly, what can I do

Cuz, Lilly I think I'm falling

Falling in love with you
