

The Rain Song

Your final act
Not a sign or a clue
Oh rain, won't you
Wash away these blues

Words and actions
Left me dazed and confused
Oh rain, won't you
Wash away these blues

*Give it to me straight, please tell me my friend
Will this feeling ever come to an end
And when will I see the sun shine again*

Should have known
One and one is not always two
Oh rain, won't you
Wash away these blues

*Give it to me straight, please tell me my friend
Will this feeling ever come to an end
And when will I see the sun shine again*

Never alone
With my heart will I choose
Oh rain, won't you
Wash away these blues

*Give it to me straight, please tell me my friend
Will this feeling ever come to an end
And when will I see the sun shine again
Sun shine again, sun shine again, sun shine again...*
