

Next Time Around

Too young to know what we had
And what started so good turned quickly to bad

*And now when I think about you it just brings me down Maybe I'll catch you
next time around*

The feelings were real
A first time for me
So blinded by love
That I couldn't see

*And now when I think about you
it just brings me down
Maybe I'll catch you
Next time around*

What the future holds in this life or the next Is but a fool's errand to venture a guess

*And now when I think about you
I no longer feel down
Maybe I'll catch you
next time around*

Composition By: FRANK ANTONICELLI

©2019 Be Still Publishing LLC

For non-commercial use only