

Turn It Up

When we were young, a long time ago
We dreamed of playing, sold out shows
Now we stay in fancy hotels and travel around in Learns
It's the life of a rock star, three hundred sixty-five days a year

With time to kill, before the band takes the stage
We decide to seek solace, from our own personal sage
Focus on your breathing, and block out the noise
Says our Indian guru, in a low, calming voice
And during our session, a voice can be heard saying

*Turn it up, cuz we love to play
But don't let our fans, hear the words that we say
Yeah, turn it up, cuz that's what we do
We sing songs that rhyme, songs that rhyme for you*

Bridge

Sound checks and videos, new cars and beautiful girls
It's a rock and roll lifestyle, each day is a blur
Cuz we party all night, and sleep all day
And the only thing that matters, is when it's time to play

Instrumental

As day turns to night, the crowd starts to grow
Waiting, anticipating, another magical rock show
The venue fills, with a familiar herbal smell
Then with the pluck of a note, the lead guitar swells
And a thundering cord, signals it's time once again
To play fast and loud for our fans and good friends

Yeah, turn it up, cuz we love to play

But don't let our fans, hear the words that we say

Yeah, turn it up, cuz that's what we do

We sing songs that rhyme, songs that rhyme for you

It's a rock and roll lifestyle, each day is a blur
Cuz we party all night, and sleep all day
And the only thing that matters, is when it's time to play

Instrumental

40 years have come and gone, where did the time go
It's our eighth farewell tour, of sold-out rock shows
The venues may be smaller and a tour bus replaced the jet
But when our fans sing along, it's a sound we'll never forget

Yeah, turn it up, cuz we love to play

But don't let our fans, hear the words that we say

Yeah, turn it up, cuz that's what we do

We sing songs that rhyme, songs that rhyme for you
